

KontekstHR Trains Toyota

Polish consulting and training firm KontekstHR has signed a contract with Toyota Motor Manufacturing Poland to train employees at Toyota's car assembly plants in Great Britain. The contract will cover training in communication and HR management for all levels of team leaders.

In Poland, KontekstHR is the only training firm that works for Toyota. Recently it also began cooperating with another Toyota factory in Poland, based in Jelcz-Laskowice.

To date, KontekstHR has worked with companies such as Philips, American Express Poland, Jabil Circuit Poland, Kimball Electronics Poland, Rockwool Polska, Campus, Agor and Citibank. It also provided training in public appearances for the Polish national team for the Athens 2004 Olympic Summer Games and consulted employees at the press offices of the Polish military contingents in Iraq and Afghanistan.
